

HOW TO BE ALL IN as an Inclusive Leader

A Five-part Virtual Series with Dan Habib

How to Be All In as an Inclusive Leader

AWSP is proud to offer this FREE five-part series, funded by our OSPI Inclusionary Practices Project grant. Join school leaders across the state for five one hour learning sessions with international film maker Dan Habib. Dan Habib is the creator of award-winning documentary films Including Samuel, Who Cares About Kelsey?, Mr. Connolly Has ALS and many others on disability-related topics. Habib is a filmmaker at the University of New Hampshire's Institute on Disability.

Come ready to listen, learn and collaborate to lead for a culture of inclusion within our schools and communities. Bring your lunch and a readiness to be inspired, affirmed, reflective and challenged in your own thinking and beliefs and the actions you're taking for inclusion. Registration includes access to all live webinars, videos, question guides and other supportive materials for inclusion that you can use with your staff. Learn more at www.awsp.org/InclusiveLeader.

AWSP
ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON
SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

Session 1 | October 27

Disabling Segregation

We kick off this series with making a powerful case for ending the systemic segregation of people with disabilities. Dan will share how an inclusive education and social life prepared his 20-year-old son Samuel for transition to higher education and employment, as well as the powerful impact that inclusion has on students and adults without disabilities.

Session 2 | December 1

Creating a Culture of Inclusion in Schools and Communities

Dan will share some of his short documentary films during this session. The films and following discussion focus on effective practices to create a culture of inclusion.

Session 3 | January 26

Inclusive School Leadership

This session will include a screening of Mr. Connolly Has ALS and a panel discussion with WA School Leaders facilitated by Dan Habib. Get ready for an incredible experience and engaging conversation. Bring your Kleenex!

Session 4 | February 23

Creating a Roadmap for Inclusive IEPs

The IEP process can be incredibly complex. During this highly interactive session, Dan helps educators, families, and students create an inclusive, collaborative road map for IEP development and postsecondary transition. Bring your entire special education team.

Session 5 | March 23

Action! Effective Practices in Transition

We finish our series effective practices that support transition to higher education and competitive, integrated employment for students with disabilities. Dan shares and discusses his recent short films focusing on postsecondary transition.
